

5 Decades of Caring

During the 1980's, Vancouver Children's Therapy Center began contracting with area school districts to provide Early Intervention Services. Encore Industries expanded to operate an auto-detail shop, shrink-wrap business, and many other assembly production projects. By the end of the decade, the adult program was transitioning away from a sheltered workshop to Individual Placements and Group Supported Employment.

Luanne

Launda

1983 - 1993